INTERNATIONAL PRESENTERS:

Dr. Kazuko Nin, PhD, RN
Kyoto University

Dr. Nin is a dynamic nurse leader. She has served as a Chief Nursing Officer at Kyoto University Hospital, a highly specialized, research intensive 1000-bed university medical center in Kyoto, Japan. Dr. Nin is one of the pioneer nurse leaders who bridge academia and clinical practice through collaboration and leadership. Her area of clinical and research expertise is chronic illness management with a focus on diabetes.

Tomoko Higashi, MSN, RN
Naomi Imai, MSN, RN
Japanese Red Cross Kumamoto Hospital

Higashi and Imai will present on the Nursing Practice and Education of the Japanese Red Cross Society, a leader of disaster and emergency relief efforts. Japanese Red Cross Kumamoto Hospital is ranked as a leading emergency and disaster relief hospital in Japan, dispatching relief medical professionals to several nations plagued by disasters including earthquakes, tsunami, and war-related disasters. Further, this hospital is a highly ranked teaching hospital in Japan.
